

31st Annual Fall Conference on Mainstreaming Students with Hearing Loss

“Connecting the Dots ••••• Academically & Socially”

October 14-15, 2010

Sheraton Hotel, Springfield, MA

Designed for Teachers of the Deaf, Audiologists, Speech and Language Pathologists, School Administrators, Classroom Teachers, Special Education Teachers, Parents, School Counselors, Interpreters, Students, Oral Transliterators, School Psychologists, Early Intervention Specialists, and Auditory-Verbal Therapists

Conference Highlights

A Special Short Course featuring:

David Sindrey, M.C.I.Sc, LSLIS, Cert AVT
Carissa Moeggenberg, MA, CCC-A
The Listening Room

“Using The Listening Room to Create Listening and Language Opportunities for Children with Hearing Loss”

~

Keynotes by:

Patricia Chute, Ed.D. Mercy College

“Technology & Communication in the New Millennium”

~

Irene Leigh, Ph.D., Deaf Psychologist, Gallaudet University

“Connecting the Dots Academically & Socially: Pathway to the Future”

~

Special Guest:

Stephen Hopson, Inspirational Speaker, Author and Deaf Pilot

“How to Turn Adversity into a University of Possibilities!”

Workshop Topics Include

- Cochlear Implanted Children in the Mainstream
- Unilateral Hearing Loss
- Strategies for Itinerant Teachers
- Literacy and Children with Hearing Loss
- An Orientation to Hearing Loss
- Audiological Management for Mainstreamed Students
- Involving Students in Their IEP Meetings
- Incorporating Listening into Home & School Activities
- Help Prepare Students to be Self-Advocates
- Developing Conversational Skills Among Peers
- Social and Academic Implications of Narrative Discourse Development

For Students:

MAKING CONNECTIONS!

A special day-long program designed for mainstreamed students with hearing loss who are currently attending grades 7-12.

