

Clarke Mainstream Services

Educational Products 2011-2012

Printed Materials

123 "The Mainstream News" – Individual $40.00

Clarke publishes The Mainstream News five times per school year as a resource for educators and families. Timely, practical articles help professionals and parents provide students with effective support and access in educational settings.

124 "The Mainstream News" – School $90.00

This is a group subscription. Eight copies of each issue are sent to your school.

166 Friends, Like You – Early Education Kit $24.95

By Melissa Griswold, M.E.D., Illustrated by Cynthia Fisher
Molly and Max are two regular kids who happen to have a hearing loss. Listening can be hard work and misunderstandings happen sometimes, but they don't let their hearing loss stop them from making friends and having fun! An ideal teaching tool for raising awareness about hearing loss and promoting friendships in mainstream settings. Published in 2007.

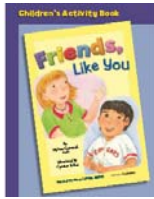

Early education kit includes:

- * one 32-page, full-color children's book
- * one educator's guide
- * one children's activity book

169 Friends, Like You –SPECIAL OFFER! $39.95

Early Education Kit PLUS a set of 30 Children's Activity Books

167 Friend's Like You – Set of 30 Children's Activity Books $30.00

173 101 Ways to Encourage Self-Advocacy in Children with Hearing Loss $10.00

Claire H. Blatchford, M.A

Enabling children with hearing loss to find their own voices and speak up for themselves at home, at school, and everywhere they go in the hearing world is surely the greatest gift we can give them. A guide for parents and professionals, this booklet offers suggestions for encouraging the development of self-advocacy at home and at school. Published in 2010.

153 My Hearing Loss and Me: We Get Along Most of the Time $21.00

John Anderson, M.A.

Here is the story of a fourth-grade boy with a cochlear implant who shares his experiences...in school with his teachers and friends and at home with his family. The book not only tells his story, but makes the reader aware of the daily experiences of hearing loss for everyone. A discussion guide is included.

Published in 2004.

165 Mi Pérdida Auditiva y Yo:: Nos Llevamos Bien la Mayor Parte del Tiempo $21.00

Published in 2007.

151 Taking a Second Language $20.00

"Is it possible for a student with hearing loss to take another language in school?" Experience has shown repeatedly that it is not only possible, but highly desirable if the student is not experiencing serious difficulties in learning English. Includes suggestions for parents, teachers and students, and contains endorsements written by young people with hearing loss from across the country. Published in 2004.

- 129 Oral Transliterating: An Educational Guide $ 3.00
 Answers the basic questions schools often have about oral transliterating. Includes a sample job description. Revised in 2006.
- 172  Summer Jobs and Beyond: A Guide for Teens with Hearing Loss and the Adults Who Work with Them $19.95
 Claire Blatchford, M.A.
 This guide helps teens learn how to land that first job or internship. Topics include networking, resume building, preparing for an interview and more. Features workbook-style pages that compliment each topic, suggestions for adults throughout, and specific information related to having a hearing loss and finding a job. Summer Jobs and Beyond is a must-have resource for programs working directly with teens with hearing loss. Published in 2009.
- 130  What Works for Me: Young Adults with Hearing Loss Talk to Teens $15.00
 Claire Blatchford, M.A.
 Ten young adults with hearing loss tell teens about what helped them find their way in mainstream schools and what continues to work for them today. Published in 2005.
- 152  Have You Heard? Welcoming a Student with Hearing Loss to Your School Community $15.00
 Melissa Griswold, M.E.D.
 A resource for parents and schools. Use this series of handouts to introduce school staff to hearing loss and help them welcome a student to the school community. Published in 2005.
- 168  Social Inclusion: How to Make it Happen $15.00
 Kathleen Casale, CAGS, Cindy Forsythe, M.E.D., Claire Troiano, M.E.D., OTC
 A workbook developed for school counselors, social workers or school psychologists working with children on the elementary level. There are three sections to the book including: information about hearing loss; an initial social needs assessment and a follow-up assessment; and sample activities that can be used in small group social skill training sessions. Published in 2004. Revised in 2007.
- 171  Preparing for the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, Inc. Oral Transliteration (OTC) Written Exam $45.95
 Now available to those who cannot attend our advanced workshop, this 100+ page manual helps experienced oral transliterators study for the RID OTC Written Exam. The manual covers all topics included on the exam and contains a mock exam. Published in 2008.

Video Materials

132		Educational Oral Transliterating: An Overview, DVD Produced for professionals, parents and students, this video shows oral transliterating and how it can benefit a student with hearing loss in the mainstream classroom. Published in 2005. (10 minutes – open captioned)	DVD	$18.00
164		Educational Oral Transliterating: An Overview, VHS	VHS	$15.00
		Oral Transliterating Practice Materials: VHS (w/transcript) and DVD (w/subtitles)

		Part 1: 6 hearing speakers (75m)
		Part 2: 6 deaf speakers (65m)
		Part 3: 5 interactions (80m)
		Produced for oral transliterators to use as practice material, these videos are ideal when preparing for the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf (RID) Oral Transliteration Certification Exam. Published in 2005.
154		Complete Set	DVD	$120.00
161		Complete Set	VHS	$ 90.00
155		Part 1 – Expressive Practice	DVD	$ 45.00
156		Part 1 – Expressive Practice	VHS	$ 35.00
157		Part 2 – Voice Over Practice	DVD	$ 45.00
158		Part 2 – Voice Over Practice	VHS	$ 35.00
159		Part 3 – Interactive Practice	DVD	$ 45.00
160		Part 4 – Interactive Practice	VHS	$ 35.00

162

Oral Transliterators MODELS, DVD

Shows oral transliterators working in various settings highlighting expressive, voice over and interactive oral transliterating. Appropriate techniques demonstrated by skilled oral transliterators. (72 minutes) Published in 2005.

DVD $ 70.00

163

Oral Transliterators MODELS, VHS

Shows oral transliterators working in various settings highlighting expressive, voice over and interactive oral transliterating. Appropriate techniques demonstrated by skilled oral transliterators. (72 minutes)

VHS $ 60.00

Audio Series

Simulated Hearing Loss Series

"What does my student hear?" Recordings approximate the sound of various hearing losses as heard through a hearing aid, allowing a better understanding of what a student hears. Presents speech at two distances, 1 foot and 12 feet.

111

Complete Set of Simulated Hearing Loss Simulations – CD

$15.00

Grades 1, 4, 8 and high school